Haftarah Service

Blessing before reading the Haftarah

ברוך Blessed are You, our Living God,
Sovereign of the universe, who chose good prophets and was pleased by their words for they were spoken in truth.
Blessed are You God, for You chose the Torah, Moses Your servant, Israel Your people and the true and righteous prophets.

ברוך אתה יהוה אלהינו מלך העולם.
אשר בחר בנביאים טובים ורצה
בדבריהם הנאמרים באמת: ברוך
אתה יהוה. הבוחר בתורה ובמשה
עבדו וב ישראל עמו ובנביאי האמת
יצדק:

The story of Jonah

God said to Jonah: Go to the city of Nineveh and tell the people to stop being mean to each other.

Jonah said: No I won't. It's too hard for me to do this. I am going to get on a boat and go as far away as I can from Nineveh!

There was a big storm which made the boat rock and roll in the sea. Jonah fell out!

Jonah was saved by a whale which swallowed him up to look after him. He felt safe there and began to pray. He knew then that he would have to help to people of Nineveh to become nicer to each other

The whale let Jonah walk out of her mouth on the beach near Nineveh.

Jonah sang this song to the people of Nineveh – and they all learned how to be good friends to each other, and not to be mean anymore!

Let's be friends, make amends.
Now's the time to say "I'm sorry."
Let's be friends, make amends.
Please say you'll forgive me.

The ten days of T'Shuvah -
Time to make up, time to pray.
Take my hand, and I'll take yours
Let's be friends for always.

A time for reflection

Kaddish

A time to think about the people or things
we miss

The doors on the ark go open and shut... all day long!

The bells on the Torah go 'ding-ding-ding'... all day long!

The people in the shul stand up—sit down... all day long!

The people in the shul say Hatimah Tovah... all day long!

The Shofar Blast

by Peter and Ellen Allard

I like to hear the Shofar blast.
Sometimes slow and sometimes fast.

I like to hear the Shofar blast,
Happy, happy, happy New Year!
