EHRS IS IDEAL FOR YOUR FAMILY

Embracing all family structures

- We put young families at the forefront, believing in the value of 'LeDor VaDor' (from generation to generation)
- You and your children can make non-school friendships and are involved in community life from birth to adult age... and beyond
- If your child attends a Jewish school we make the learning from school meaningful in our progressive community
- Our Rabbis Debbie, Mark and Mati are there to support you and your family through all life cycle events and community activities - expected and unexpected
- Our dedicated Community Care team of professionals and volunteers is there for you in times of need for your whole family, to support, offer advice and advocate

WE TALK

We speak about mental health, offer support and raise awareness. We lead events and discussions on topics that are important, emotional and topical.

YOU BUILD LINKS TO OTHER GENERATIONS

WE LISTEN

We run listening campaigns to speak to members about what they really want from EHRS and put what you tell us in action!

ABOUT EHRS FROM OUR MEMBERS

Ability to evolve in response to the contemporary world

"Tea & Tots has been so lovely, as new members to the synagogue it was a really nice way to meet people and the kids love all the different activities"

Stephanie Isaacson

"The EHRS events for young people are excellent. The effort put in by the shul guarantees a wonderful time for my children and therefore me too! They work with parents to ensure the events running are appropriate, of interest and welcome feedback!"

Charlotte and Gideon Wittenberg

"As a family with boys that go to a Jewish Day School, we love being part of the Young Families group at EHRS as it's so inclusive and inviting. Our boys (aged 3 and 6) have the BEST time at the services, activity sessions and Chagim parties!!! They especially like bringing their Shabbat Dinosaurs from home to the Friday Night Services and eating the Challah. Mmm:)"

The Pratten-Stone family

"We have seen our own children grow and benefit from being members of the synagogue and now as grandparents are even more impressed with the new events and range of facilities and services on offer for young families. We very much enjoy participating and attending with our grandchildren"

"As a family, it has meant so much to see our kids excitedly bound into activities and services at EHRS. The community is a home where you can bring the fullness of who you are as individuals and as a family, and receive a warm welcome and meaningful Jewish content."

Rabbi Debbie Young-Somers

"It is wonderful as a Rabbi to be part of the Jewish journey of young families. Our first steps in Judaism build an enthusiasm that can last a lifetime and enhance every stage on the journey."

Rabbi Mark Goldsmith
