Monthly Musings

Cantor Tamara Wolfson

My favourite email I received this week opened with these words:

"Hi Cantor Tamara,

No need to do anything about this until after the High Holy Days, but..."

The High Holy Days are fast-approaching, and that means that your clergy team is much busier than usual. I always tell my non-Jewish friends that these months are similar to how accountants experience tax season: it's all-encompassing, and it's hard to think about anything else.

While I deeply dislike doing my taxes each year, I absolutely love the High Holy Days. First and foremost I love the music of this season, which is so beautiful, poignant, and memorable. Our High Holy Day choir, this year doubled in size and joined by a wonderful group of volunteer singers, has already begun rehearsing this material and the group sounds absolutely beautiful.

The prayers of the High Holy Day season are also some of my most favourite. Each year I'm amazed that we can always find new meaning each time we open up a machzor. This year, with its particular challenges, sorrows and celebrations, gives us much to reflect on as we prepare to welcome in the new Jewish year of 5786.

Over the coming weeks, you will hear more about the wide range of services and activities on offer both during the High Holy Days and throughout the month of Elul to help us prepare physically, mentally, and spiritually for this sacred season. But first, we dive headfirst into the month of Av – and this month's edition of What's On for August is sure to fill your diaries with opportunities to connect with one another, and with your EHRS community.

Oud & Food

This year's Oud and Food in July centred on the history, customs, culture, music and food of the Jewish communities of the Arabian peninsula. EHRS members and guests of all generations immersed ourselves in the Jewish communities of Yemen, Aden and Bahrain for a delightful morning organised by the EHRS Education and Youth Team with Rabbi Mark and Cantor Tamara. The morning was made extra special by the first hand testimony of members originally from Aden and Bahrain. Over the past summers we have studied the Jewish communities of the Caribbean, Iran and Iraq, Egypt and Morocco. Who should we learn about in next year's Oud and Food?

Services

Erev Shabbat Service, 18:30–19:20

Our Erev Shabbat Service takes place every Friday evening. Led by our Clergy in person at the Synagogue and through the EHRS Livestream Classic Channel. They give a beautiful sense of rest and togetherness to help you to cope with the stresses of the world. Once a month, returning in September, our Shirah (musical) or Shirah SheBaLev (accapella choir) Friday night services enhance the experience with great music.

Shabbat Morning Service, 10:30–12:30

Our Shabbat Morning Service is held in the EHRS Beit Tefillah (sanctuary). The service is also available on the EHRS Livestream Classic Channel.

Children's Shabbat Experiences

We aim for there to be a special Shabbat experience for children every week at EHRS. Our Shabbat Shirah and Shabbat Club on respectively the second and fourth Shabbat each month are especially created for children to enjoy. On the first and third Shabbat, from 10:45–11:15 our Clergy and educators run Torah Time sessions for any children that would like to join them. See Our Week Ahead for what is on this week. All are suitable for collecting CRP points for Jewish schools.

Kuddle Up Shabbat, 16:15–16:45

Our special interactive Shabbat service for Primary aged children and their siblings. Songs, stories and activities. You can collect CRP points from attending. Early arrival is optional from 15.45. Come straight from school pick up, or just arrive early to play before the service. Selection of toys for the children and hot drinks available for the adults.

Early Risers Service – Second Shabbat of Each Month, 9:30–11:00

This especially friendly service is mostly in Hebrew, uses nusach (traditional modes of chant for the prayers), includes the Torah reading and Musaf (which is the repetition of the Amidah special to Shabbat) and other features to create a participative experience, ending with a hospitable Kiddush.

Sunday Shacharit, 9:30–10:00

Half an hour of morning prayer with a friendly bunch of folks, includes the Kaddish if you are remembering a loved one. On the first Sunday of each month, it includes a bagel breakfast.

First Shabbat Shiur – The Smarties' Guide to the Shabbat and Weekday Services Saturday 2 August, 9:15–10:15

How does a Shabbat Service work? What is the difference between a morning and evening service and why? How do these services differ on a festival or on a weekday?

Unlock the secrets of every Jewish service in Reform, Orthodox, Liberal and Masorti settings with Rabbi Mark – and (yes really!) a tube of smarties.

In person and on Zoom.

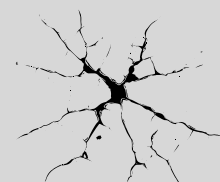

Shabbat for the Soul – Morning Service Saturday 2 August, 11:15–12:15

Bringing our Brokenness.

Tisha B'Av, the 9th of Av, is the most solemn of days when we remember the destruction of both Temples and many other Jewish tragedies.

We will come together to explore how Judaism can hold us in our brokenness.

Led by Rabbi Debbie.

SATURDAY 2 AUGUST
20:00–21:30

On Tisha B'Av we commemorate a number of sad events which have changed the course of Jewish history, the destruction of the First and Second Temples, the expulsion of the Jews from Spain in 1492 and England in 1290.

Rabbi Sandra and Rabbi Mark will lead a reading of the Megillah Eichah/Lamentations and then we will consider how Judaism and Jewish communities have repaired themselves after such deep shattering.

A Time for Reflection and Preparation

What do you want this year's poem to be? What needs polishing and what needs revising so that a new song can emerge?

Join us for our monthly Rosh Chodesh group for conversation, meditation and thinking about the issues that help or hold us back, as we journey towards the High Holy Days.

Led by Rabbi Sandra on Zoom.

Email sandra.kviat@ehrs.uk for Zoom details.

Rambling

Sundays monthly, 10:30–12:00

There's only one thing that beats getting out into the fresh air and discovering new places – and that's doing it with other people. Rambling is a fantastic way to make new friends and learn about local lore.

Our monthly walks are approximately 1-2 hours, moderately challenging, and super friendly.

Open to all ages.

Bereavement Support at EHRS

Our Community Care team contacts members who have been affected by bereavement as a means to offer fellowship and a listening ear. We have a small group of bereavement visitors who are volunteers trained to provide support to those in our community who have been bereaved. In some cases, we may suggest referral to approved professional support. All our work is carried out in the strictest confidence.

A MEMORIAL TO THE VICTIMS OF THE OCTOBER 7 ATTACKS

There is no doubt that all of us have been affected by what took place on October 7 2023. Over 1000 men, women and children were murdered by Hamas on that fateful day including Jake Marlowe z"l, a child of EHRS members.

It is now time for us to honour and respect those who have perished, so we are going to create a memorial which will be sculpted by Josette Perloff, one of our own members.

This memorial, which will cost about £7,000 will be situated in our memorial garden, and will be based on a tree - Eytz Chayim- a tree of life. It will remind us of the trees at the Nova Music Festival as well as the trees at the kibbutzim where many lost their lives.

We are delighted to say we have achieved over 70% of the target - thank you and please give if you haven't yet.

We hope to unveil this sculpture at Sukkot, Sunday October 5, but clearly we do need your help to raise the funds. Please, I urge you, go to ehrs.uk/memorial-sculpture-donation.

Four years ago we raised in excess of £30,000 which allowed us to create a new Torah Scroll in memory of Rabbi Neil Kraft z"l who died in the early days of Covid. Your generosity was immense and hopefully you will also wish to contribute towards this sculptured tree which will be an everlasting memorial to those who were murdered on October 7 2023.

At Nagila we offer a safe, secure and stimulating setting in which pre-school children are free to develop to their full potential, in a friendly and nurturing environment.

The school is purpose built with its own secure outdoor play areas, which are used daily to give the children space to move and learn.

We provide a developmentally appropriate curriculum which encompasses the Early Years Foundation Stage Curriculum as set down by the Department of Education

We are delighted to have been consistently judged 'Good' or 'Outstanding' in all Ofsted inspections since 2010.

Come and see our very special nursery and meet the team. We would be delighted to discuss with you how we can nurture, educate and care for your child in our very exciting and dynamic nursery.
