BBM TERMS 1-3 DATES 2025-26

Sukkot Term Theme: Torah

Learning about your portions and how that fits into the overall story of the Torah. Ours synagogue scrolls carry stories of our histories. Develops a relationship with the Torah that enables you to understand it and the Jewish literature that derives from it e.g. Midrash Talmud, as living documents with meaning in your lives.

Pesach Term Theme: Avodah

Learning about how the Shabbat service works and preparing you to become more fluent and confident to participate in Services. Includes participating in an explanatory Friday night service where you can share your learning. You will understand the structure and purposes of our prayer services in a way which enables you to transfer this knowledge to any other Jewish setting. You will also gain confidence in your own ability to participate in services.

Shavuot Term Theme: Gemilut Chasadim

This term you will be involved in social action and tzedakah projects as individuals and a cohort. We invite speakers in to inspire and inform you. You will learn to understand Gemilut Chasidim as an essential element of Judaism and Jewish life. How our community perform acts of loving kindness through three levels of tikkun; why it matters and what projects we can initiate and perform personally and collectively.
